N° 132 - September 2015

New venue for our annual general meeting

THIS year our AGM will take place in a different setting and we will gather at Trethorne Golf Club on 18 November for our annual dinner, along with the business of reviewing activities past, discussing future events and the election of officers.

Full details of timings and costs will be published in the next issue of The Packet.

The good news – subscriptions have been pegged at the same rate for yet another year!

Individual membership £7.50

Family or corporate membership £15

Our subs are due on or before the AGM and our treasurer, Jean Mansell, would prefer cheques, please, made payable to Launceston Twinning Association. In fact, Jean would find it helpful if payments for all twinning activities could be made by cheque, rather than cash, because it makes the audit trail more straightforward.

Jean also asks that members enclose a note explaining what their payments cover, i.e. how many people for named events, because she can sometimes receive cheques/cash in one envelope with no explanation of what the payment covers.

FILM FOCUS – reminder

The most romantic story ever?

OUR first film after the holidays Cyrano de Bergerac, showcases Gerard Depardieu in a towering performance as the title character in this lavish adaptation of Edmond Rostand's stage drama. Film night is Tuesday 22 September; the deadline for booking your meal is Weds 16 September.

Based on the classic of French literature, Cyrano is the tale of a brave and noble soldier who needed a nose-job before they were available, but he has the soul of a poet and uses his poetic gift to help a more visually appealing competitor gain the affections of his true love.

To book your meal, please tell Carolyn Burch carolynburch@btconnect.com (01566 785171) which meal(s) you want and send a cheque (£15 per person) to Jean Mansell at Nighthoak, 2 Stourscombe Wood, Launceston PL15 9JP.

- Carbonnade of beef – pieces of beef cooked slowly with onions in real ale served with new potatoes and carrots
- Lamb tagine- with apricots, cous cous and orange relish
- Gratin of lentils, spinach and ricotta in rich tomato sauce- tomatoes, red wine, green lentils topped with toasted breadcrumbs and parmesan
