French Film Night, next Tuesday, 5 December

Caché (Hidden)

DESCRIBED as “the first great film of the 21st century” , this is an utterly compelling psychological thriller from film director Michael Haneke.

It stars Daniel Auteuil as Georges, as a television presenter who begins to receive mysterious and alarming packages containing covertly filmed videos of himself and his family.

To the mounting consternation of Georges and his wife (Juliette Binoche) the footage on the tapes – which arrive wrapped in drawings of disturbingly violent images – becomes increasingly personal, and sinister anonymous phone calls are made.

Convinced he knows the identity of the person responsible, Georges embarks on a rash and impulsive course of action that throws up some unpleasant facts about his past and leads to shockingly unexpected consequences.

To book your meal and film deal, please contact Jean Mansell at jeanmansell2@gmail.com or telephone 01566 776944 with your meal choice by Thursday evening November 30.

The meal choices are:

- * Vegetarian lasagne
- * Coq au vin
- * Beef en daube

Cheques (£16 per person) should be sent to Jean at Nigtoak, 2 Stourscombe Wood, Launceston PL15 9JP, and please note on the back of the cheque that the payment is for the French film night and for the number of people.

And finally...

...OUR thanks to Cherry Warne who has shed some light on Launceston's previous twinning arrangements. Cherry writes: "Launceston was twinned with Achim in Lower Saxony, not far from Bremen but definitely not Bremen in the 50s and maybe 60s.

Certainly the town band went on a visit long before Mike ever got involved in it but I think it died a death simply because the two towns were totally unsuited. Achim is a big industrial town and Launceston – well..."
